

Wed, Feb. 7, 1979

er girl first princess entry

oughdney
first dairy cur-
High clude Rally

ill be Inn, 5th.
ncess
ected aton
hairouza,

Fresno dairyman, last year's chairman. Betty Bertao, Fresno, has been elected women's activities chairman with Clyde King, Crocker Bank - Fresno, men's activities chairman and Ed Jordon, Madera, treasurer.

Nine candidate openings remain for the District 8 princess contest. District 8 includes the counties of Madera and Fresno. To enter a girl must be between the ages of 17 and 25, be unmarried, at least a high school graduate this June and have either a dairy farm, dairy industry or related dairy industry background. Princess entry forms are available from local dairymen or by writing the Milk Advisory Board, P.O. Box 4680, Modesto, Ca. 95352.

Winners of the eleven dairy princess contests throughout California will compete in June, in Ahaheim, for the state California Dairy Princess title.

Also receiving scholarships, the State Princess will be a salaried staff member in the public relations department of the California Milk Advisory Board for the year of her reign.

Current district dairy princess is Julia Maddox, Riverdale.

'That's Entertainment' theme of CHS talent show

Clovis High School's annual student/faculty talent show is built around the theme of "That's Entertainment" and will be presented Saturday at 8 p.m. in Clark Auditorium.

Song and dance numbers, magic and Clovis High School's award winning jazz band will be featured in the production.

Clovis High School Principal Bill Contenti will be featured on his trumpet as part of the faculty presentation, Mike DeCarli plays a piano solo and there will be faculty country song entertainment.

Howard Malan and Robin Dutton sing, "You Don't Bring Me Flowers," Bob Evans and Brian Riley sing, "Where Do The Children Play," Sharon Shwetzter will present an original musical piece as some of the highlights of the student talent. Tickets are priced $1.50 for students and $2 for adults. For more information, call 299-7211.

Family sought

The International Club of Clovis West High School is offering a local family a ten month "experience" in international relations.

The search is on for a family to host an overseas student for the coming school year. The students would live with the family and attend classes at Clovis West.

Host families may take a monthly tax deduction in accordance with provisions made by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

Families interested in participating in the AFS experience are urged to write or call Mrs. Wiens at 1070 E. Teague, Fresno, CA 93710, 431-6600.

Film-lecture

The Clovis Adult School winter film-lecture series will continue Friday, Feb. 9, with "Three Faces of Mexico" humorously narrated by Curt Matson. The presentation will begin at 7:30 in Clark Auditorium on Fifth Street east of Clovis Avenue.

"Three Faces of Mexico" will feature the Yucatan Peninsula—the land of the Mayan Indians. A popular support

agri-
dents their ter in ject

object yards ional sponsor three agricultural field days for all FFA students on a regional basis to help sharpen skills and further develop expertise in agriculture. These field days will be held at Mt. San Antonio College (March 17), Imperial Valley College (March 23) and Fresno State University (April 21).

43

oz. pin

ST

PINK G

T

EST

SO

22

11

DE

Chick

of Ch

FD

W

DE

CO

1

9

7

6

5

4

3

2

1

0

9

8

7